MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

On behalf of the Veterans Review and Appeal Board, I am pleased to present the 2015-16 annual report to Parliament on the administration of the Access to Information Act.

This legislation gives Canadian citizens the right to access information in records held by the Government of Canada. It exists to protect the rights of individuals and to promote accountability and dialogue between citizens and their government. In 2015-16, the Board continued to receive and process requests under the Access to Information Act for individuals exercising their rights under this legislation.

This year was a busy one for the Board, as our Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) Unit experienced a significant increase in access requests and a noticeable rise in privacy requests compared to the previous year. Our goal in processing these requests is to provide accurate, complete and timely responses to Canadians in accordance with the law.

In 2015-16, the ATIP Unit continued to provide leadership on privacy matters at the Board by assessing the impacts of new ideas and initiatives. For example, the unit supported the launch of the Board's official Twitter accounts (@VRAB_Canada) in October to ensure they meet basic privacy requirements. The Board also began posting summaries of its completed Access to Information requests on the Open Government Portal, to support transparency, accountability and citizen engagement.

We continued to build and promote a privacy culture at the Board through operational improvements, training and communications. This included providing guidance to our staff on the Treasury Board's Directive on Social Insurance Number, and putting a spotlight on the appropriate use and protection of Veterans' personal information during our second annual Privacy Month in May. I am also pleased with the excellent work our pre-hearing unit has done to prevent privacy breaches by identifying service documents misfiled by other organizations: in 2015-16, no material privacy breaches occurred at the Board.

In 2015-16, the Board continued to provide applicants with an independent avenue of redress for their disability pension, disability award and War Veterans Allowance decisions. In fulfilling this mandate, we are committed to protecting individual rights by upholding the legislation and developing our capacity in matters of access to information and privacy.

Thomas W. Jarmyn

Acting Chair

THE VETERANS REVIEW AND APPEAL BOARD

OUR OBJECTIVE

The Veterans Review and Appeal Board is an independent, administrative tribunal created in 1995. The Board provides an appeal program for service-related disability decisions made by Veterans Affairs Canada (VAC, the Department). This program gives applicants two levels of redress for disability benefits decisions and the final level of appeal for War Veterans Allowance claims.

The Board's objective is to ensure that Canada's traditional Veterans, Canadian Armed Forces members and Veterans, Royal Canadian Mounted Police applicants, qualified civilians and their families receive the disability pensions, disability awards and other benefits to which they are entitled under the law.

HOW WE WORK

The Board operates at arm's-length from the Department to ensure a fair appeal process for applicants. Our work is governed by the Veterans Review and Appeal Board Act and delivered by up to 25 permanent Members appointed by the Governor in Council and approximately 75 staff in 2015-16. Our daily work involves conducting hearings in locations across Canada and issuing written decisions for applicants based on evidence and according to the legislation governing disability benefits.

OUR HEARING PROGRAM

The Board provides applicants with two levels of redress: a review hearing and a subsequent appeal hearing if they remain dissatisfied. Our hearings are non-adversarial, which means no one argues against the Veteran. Applicants have access to free case preparation and representation at their hearing by the Bureau of Pensions Advocates (a unique organization of lawyers within VAC) or by Service Officers from Veterans' organizations. As independent adjudicators, Board Members are not bound by previous decisions and have authority to change them to benefit applicants if there is credible evidence.

The review hearing is the first and only opportunity in the disability adjudication process for applicants to appear before the decision makers and tell their story (provide testimony). We hold review hearings in locations across Canada and by video conference, where applicants give oral testimony, bring forward witnesses and new information, and present arguments in support of their case. If applicants are not satisfied with their review decision they can request an appeal hearing. While the legislation does not permit oral testimony at the appeal level, the hearing is a further opportunity for applicants, through their representative, to submit new information and arguments. Appeal hearings are usually held at the Board's Head Office in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.

OUR COMMITMENT

The Board is committed to upholding the principles of the Access to Information Act while providing applicants with a fair and timely appeal process for disability benefits decisions.

INTRODUCTION

The Access to Information Act gives Canadian citizens and individuals present in Canada a broad right of access to information contained in government records under control of the institution, subject to certain specific and limited exceptions. It maintains that government information should be available to the public and should complement and not replace existing procedures for access to government information.

Section 72 of the Access to Information Act requires that the head of every government institution prepare an Annual Report on the administration of the Act for submission to Parliament during each fiscal year.

MANDATE

The Veterans Review and Appeal Board has full and exclusive jurisdiction to hear, determine and deal with all applications for review and appeal that may be made to the Board under the Pension Act, the Canadian Forces Members and Veterans Re-establishment and Compensation Act - Part 3, the War Veterans Allowance Act and other Acts of Parliament. All matters related to appeals under this legislation are authorized under the Veterans Review and Appeal Board Act.

This Board also adjudicates duty related pension applications under the authority of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Pension Continuation Act and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Superannuation Act.

The Board has full responsibility for the administration of the Access to Information Act.

STATISTICAL REPORT - INTERPRETATION

The Statistical Report (Annex 1) provides a summary of the formal Access to Information Act requests processed for the reporting period of April 1, 2015 and March 31, 2016.

PART 1 - REQUESTS UNDER THE ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

During the reporting period VRAB received 12 requests under the Access to Information Act. Two requests were outstanding from the previous reporting period for a total of 14 requests closed. This represents an increase of eight requests (133%) completed from last year's total of six requests.

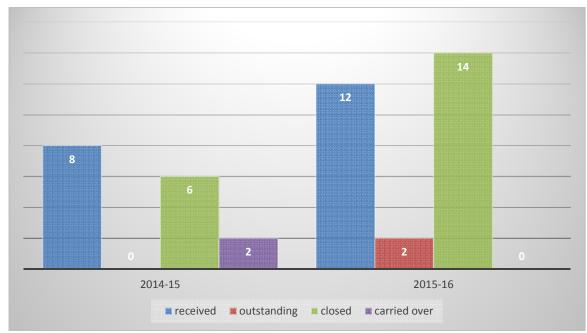

Table 1 - Overview of ATI requests for last two years

Of the 12 requests received two were from the media, two from organizations, seven from the public and one declined to identify.

During the reporting period, VRAB completed 12 informal requests for information. This represents an increase of seven informal requests (140%) from last year's total of five. This increase may be attributed to the posting of ATI summaries to the Open Government portal.

2.1 - DISPOSITION AND COMPLETION TIME

The disposition of the 14 requests that were completed in 2015-16 with information disclosed in accordance with the provisions of the legislation is illustrated in the table below.

Disposition of Requests Closed

All disclosed (8)

Disclosed in part (4)

No records exist (1)

Request abandoned (1)

Table 2 - Disposition of Requests Closed

Of these 14 requests, three were completed within 15 days and 11 within 16-30 days.

2.2 - EXEMPTIONS

An exemption is a provision under the Access to Information Act that authorizes the head of the institution or delegate to refuse to disclose records in response to an access request. Exemptions should always be limited and specific.

During the reporting period VRAB cited the following exemptions:

Exemptions cited	Number of requests
Subsection 19(1) personal information	3
Paragraph 21(1)(a) operations of government–advice	1
Section 23 solicitor-client privilege	1

2.3 - EXCLUSIONS

Pursuant to sections 68 and 69 of the Access to Information Act, the Act does not apply to published material, material available for purchase by the public, material placed in the Library and Archives of Canada or confidences of the Queen's Privy Council. During the reporting period VRAB did not invoke section 68 or 69.

2.4 - FORMAT OF INFORMATION RELEASED

For requests where information is disclosed, the requester has the right to ask for the information in the format of choice. In the nine requests that were all disclosed, four were provided on paper, four were provided on CDs and one in another format (i.e. an audio recording). In the four requests that were disclosed in part, all four were provided on CDs.

2.5 - COMPLEXITY

During the reporting period, the ATIP office processed a total of 1,917 pages and disclosed 1,902 pages. This represents a decrease of 5,108 pages (266%) processed from last year's total of 7,025 pages. This decrease can be attributed to the size of the requests.

- In the 10 requests where less than 100 pages were processed, 51 pages were disclosed in total. In the previous year, only one request was less than 100 pages with 46 pages being disclosed.
- Only one of the requests processed was over 1,000 pages, and 1,107 pages were disclosed. Compared with the previous year, where two of the requests processed were over 1,000 pages and 5,713 pages were disclosed in total.

Fiscal year	Number of pages processed	Number of pages disclosed	Number of requests
2015-16	1,917	1,902	13
2014-15	7,025	7,025	6

The other complexities associated with the treatment of requests consisted of a fee assessment in one request, legal advice sought in one request and the processing of audio recordings in three requests.

2.6 - DEEMED REFUSALS

During the reporting period VRAB met all statutory deadlines on requests, therefore, does not have any deemed refusals to report.

2.7 - REQUESTS FOR TRANSLATION

In 2015-16, VRAB did not receive any requests for translation.

PART 3 - EXTENSIONS

The Access to Information Act allows institutions to extend the original 30 day limit under certain circumstances as provided under section 9 of the Act. VRAB did not invoke any extensions in 2015-16.

PART 4 - FEES

In accordance with section 11 of the Access to Information Act and section 7 of the Access to Information Regulations, the fees collected during the reporting period were application fees totalling $30. Also, during the same period VRAB waived a total of $30 in application fees.

PART 5 - CONSULTATIONS RECEIVED FROM OTHER INSTITUTIONS AND ORGANIZATIONS

VRAB received two consultations during the reporting period from other Government of Canada institutions with a total of 30 pages reviewed. Both of the consultations were completed within 1-15 days. The recommendation for one consultation was to disclose entirely. Upon review of the second consultation, it was discovered that the records in question were not within the scope of the request. The consulting institution was notified and the records were deemed not relevant. There were no consultations received from other organizations.

PART 6 - COMPLETION TIME OF CONSULTATIONS ON CABINET CONFIDENCES

In 2015-16, VRAB had no consultations on Cabinet Confidences, therefore, there were no requests with legal services or the Privy Council Office for review and recommendation on the application of section 69 of the Access to Information Act.

PART 7 - COMPLAINTS AND INVESTIGATIONS

During the reporting period VRAB received one report of finding from the Office of the Information Commissioner pursuant to section 37 of the Act.

PART 8 - COURT ACTION

VRAB had no complaints in which the requester, the Information Commissioner, or a third party applied to the Federal Court for a review.

PART 9 - RESOURCES RELATED TO THE ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

During the reporting period VRAB spent a total of $80,955 administering the Access to Information Act. Staff salaries accounted for $79,897, and Goods and Services amounted to $1,058. VRAB had 1.10 person years dedicated to Access to Information activities.

TRAINING

In 2015-16, the VRAB ATIP office held one ATIP training session for 10 new employees. Since its inaugural year in 2013-14, ATIP training has become a key orientation component for all new employees, whether they are indeterminate, term or casual. The training session deals with the appropriate use and protection of personal information, steps to take if a privacy breach occurs, and employee obligations under the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act.

Additionally, 17 employees participated in security briefing sessions that included an overview of both access to information and privacy legislation.

POLICIES, GUIDELINES AND PROCEDURES

May 2015 marked the second annual Privacy Month at the Board. Throughout the month posters were prominently displayed throughout the Board, weekly e-mail tips were shared with all staff and memoranda on the following topics reminded all employees of best practices when handling information:

- Privacy and Protection of Client Information
- ABCs of Protected Information
- Clear Desk Practice
- Need to Know Principle
- Safe Disposal of Protected and Classified Information

These memos, posters, and e-mail tips foster a privacy culture at the Board and ensure continual awareness of employees' roles and responsibilities when handling, protecting and disposing of information.

The Board began uploading summaries of completed ATI requests to the Open Government portal in support of the Government of Canada's commitment to transparency and Open Government.

ATIP procedures were updated following the Office of Information Commissioner's Advisory Notice on Fees for electronic records as per the Information Commissioner of Canada v. Attorney General of Canada, 2015 FC 405 (the Fees Reference) decision in which fees can no longer be charged for electronic documents.

The Board issued a memo to all employees to provide guidance on the usage of the Social Insurance Number (SIN) in cases where it is the individual's military service number in accordance with the TBS Directive on Social Insurance Number.

COMPLAINTS AND/OR INVESTIGATIONS

VRAB did not receive any complaints during the reporting period. However, we did receive a report of finding as a result of a complaint filed in 2014-15 related to the format of information released. This report revealed that the complaint was not well founded.

MONITORING OF PROCESS TIME

The VRAB ATIP office monitors all requests for information in Access Pro Case Management. This software allows for the inputting and tracking of requests. The ATIP Officer monitors all requests received in the ATIP office and provides the Deputy Coordinator with a weekly status/progress report.
